This review petition is filed after condoning 89 days of representation delay. Petitioner's application for the recruitment to the post of Deputy General Manager was rejected as he was not having the required qualification or experience in supervisory and managerial capacity. He was working as a senior accountant. After going through the details of his duty as seen from the service records, it was held that he was not doing many supervisory functions. If petitioner is aggrieved by the above findings, it is for him to file an appeal and a review petition cannot be equated to a petition for rehearing, after the retirement of the learned Judge who pronounced the judgment on behalf of the Division Bench or cannot be considered as an appeal proceedings. No grounds are made out for reviewing the judgment. Accordingly this review petition is dismissed.
